If you ordered Scholastic Books in March and haven't yet received them, please see Mrs. Fozzard. She has a March book order that did not have a name attached to it.

Playdough volunteers wanted! Our playdough coordinator is looking for some more parents to assist in making playdough for the preschool classes. If you are able to help out, please sign up on the sheet provided in the cloakroom. Your help is very much appreciated. Thank you!

Outside Play at Preschool

Now that spring is here and spring-like weather should be (hopefully) coming very soon, the preschool classes will be going outside more often to play in the playground. Please be aware of this and dress your child appropriately. Footwear that is playground friendly, as well as, a hat and sunscreen would be appreciated.

Thanks for your cooperation. ☺
